Mr. SESSIONS, from the Committee on Rules, submitted the following

R E P O R T

[To accompany H. Res. 453]

The Committee on Rules, having had under consideration House Resolution 453, by a nonrecord vote, report the same to the House with the recommendation that the resolution be adopted.

SUMMARY OF PROVISIONS OF THE RESOLUTION

The resolution provides for consideration of H.R. 2930, the Entrepreneur Access to Capital Act, under a structured rule. The resolution provides one hour of general debate equally divided and controlled by the chair and ranking minority member of the Committee on Financial Services. The resolution waives all points of order against consideration of the bill. The resolution provides that the amendment in the nature of a substitute recommended by the Committee on Financial Services now printed in the bill shall be considered as original text for the purpose of amendment and shall be considered as read. The resolution waives all points of order against the committee amendment in the nature of a substitute. The resolution makes in order only those further amendments to H.R. 2930 printed in part A of this report. Each such amendment may be offered only in the order printed in this report, may be offered only by a Member designated in this report, shall be considered as read, shall be debatable for the time specified in this report equally divided and controlled by the proponent and an opponent, shall not be subject to amendment, and shall not be subject to a demand for division of the question in the House or in the Committee of the Whole. The resolution waives all points of order against the amendments printed in part A of this report. The resolution provides one motion to recommit H.R. 2930 with or without instructions.

The resolution further provides for consideration of H.R. 2940, the Access to Capital for Job Creators Act, under a structured rule. The resolution provides one hour of debate equally divided and controlled by the chair and ranking minority member of the Committee on Financial Services. The resolution waives all points of order against consideration of the bill. The resolution provides that the amendment in the nature of a substitute recommended by the Committee on Financial Services now printed in the bill shall be considered as adopted, and the bill, as amended, shall be considered as read. The resolution waives all points of order against the provisions in the bill, as amended. The resolution makes in order the further amendment to H.R. 2940 printed in part B of this report, if offered by Representative Miller of North Carolina or his designee, which shall be considered as read and shall be separately debatable for 10 minutes equally divided and controlled by the proponent and an opponent. The resolution waives all points of order against the amendment printed in part B of this report. Finally, the resolution provides one motion to recommit H.R. 2940 with or without instructions.

EXPLANATION OF WAIVERS

The waiver of all points of order against consideration of H.R. 2930 includes a technical waiver of clause 2(h) of rule XI, which prohibits a committee from improperly reporting a measure without a quorum present. The Committee on Financial Services did not formally order the measure reported because the chair did not properly put the question on reporting the measure to the committee.

Although the rule waives all points of order against the committee amendment in the nature of a substitute, the Committee is not aware of any points of order. The waiver is prophylactic in nature.

Although the rule waives all points of order against the amendments printed in part A of this report, the Committee is not aware of any points of order. The waiver is prophylactic in nature.

Although the rule waives all points of order against consideration of H.R. 2940, the Committee is not aware of any points of order. The waiver is prophylactic in nature.

Although the rule waives all points of order against provisions in the bill, as amended, the Committee is not aware of any points of order. The waiver is prophylactic in nature.

Although the rule waives all points of order against the amendment printed in part B of this report, the Committee is not aware of any points of order. The waiver is prophylactic in nature.

COMMITTEE VOTES

The results of each record vote on an amendment or motion to report, together with the names of those voting for and against, are printed below:

SUMMARY OF AMENDMENTS IN PART A MADE IN ORDER

1. McHenry (NC): Would make technical corrections. Would also require the issuer to state a target offering amount and a deadline to reach the target offering amount. Would require that the Securities and Exchange Commission is provided a notice upon completion of the offering, which shall include the aggregate offering amount and the number of purchasers. Would clarify the disqualification provision to ensure that both issuers and intermediaries, as well as their predecessors, affiliates, officers, directors, or persons fulfilling similar roles, are disqualified from the exemption established in this bill should they have a history of committing securities fraud. (10 minutes)

2. Fincher (TN), Sherman (CA): Would index to inflation the $1 million and $2 million aggregate annual amounts raised through the issue of the securities as authorized in the bill. The index for inflation would be measured by the annual change in the Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers published by the Bureau of Labor Statistics. (10 minutes)

3. Quayle (AZ): Would index the $10,000 individual investment cap to inflation. (10 minutes)

4. Velázquez (NY): Would require crowdfunding intermediaries to disclose their method of compensation to potential investors. (10 minutes)

5. Barrow (GA): Would require the Commission to establish a website that provides the public with crowdfunding website safety tips for investing in securities described under section 4(6). (10 minutes)

6. Perlmutter (CO), McHenry (NC): Would preserve a state's right to enforce securities laws with respect to fraud, deceit or unlawful conduct. (10 minutes)

SUMMARY OF AMENDMENT IN PART B MADE IN ORDER

Miller, Brad (NC): Would require disclosure of bonus compensation structures and "golden parachute" arrangements in advertising materials associated with an exempted offering. (10 minutes)
